

The Data Dilemma: Cloud Adoption and Risk

Healthcare Edition

The high-value data held by healthcare makes them an attractive target for cybercriminals.

76%

of healthcare organizations suffered a cybersecurity breach, threat and data theft.

75% across all industries

Public cloud use has seen a slower uptake in healthcare than in other sectors.

47%

of healthcare organization's sensitive data is stored in the public cloud, on average

61% across all industries

Legacy systems impact connectivity and cloud security.

48%

have issues with remote and hybrid workers being bogged down by latency or bandwidth issues from using a VPN

38% across all industries

Cybersecurity talent shortages hit harder for healthcare.

66%

say a shortage of cybersecurity skills has a large effect on their ability to secure usage of cloud computing.

56% across all industries

Shadow IT is impacting security, but this is taken more seriously in healthcare.

74% admit Shadow IT impairs their ability to keep data secure

30% rely on data loss prevention solutions and encryption ...

... 23% across all industries

Click here for more information on cloud security technology for healthcare, and contact Skyhigh Security for a personalized assessment of cloud usage in your organization.

Please click here to read the full Cloud Adoption and Risk Report.

